Rules

- ✓ The Student Speech Contest at the biannual ECerS conference is an event where young research students, representing each of the ECerS member countries, are able to give an oral presentation that is evaluated by a jury. The presentation duration will be 15 minutes, followed by questions from the jury and the audience.
- ✓ Each member country can send one (PhD, MSc, BSc) research student as the candidate of their country for the ECerS student speech contest. The oral presentation at the contest should be based on research work that the candidate has performed himself/herself at a research institution in the country he/she is representing. Graduate representatives must be within their first five years of full time research at the time of the speech.
- ✓ If the representative is a PhD student, the candidate can participate in the competition if he/she defends (or will defend) his/her thesis after September 1, 2020.
- ✓ The candidate obtains free registration to ECerS XVI. The national societies are requested to pay the costs for travelling and lodging of their candidate student. The conference organizers have submitted a proposal to the JECS Trust for (partially) reimbursing these costs. Decision on this proposal will be taken by the JECS Trust at the beginning of February 2019.
- ✓ The national society will inform the ECerS educational working group as well as the conference organisers not later than May 31, 2021 who will be the representative of their country.
- ✓ The candidates should not register for the conference through the web page. Once the national societies inform about their candidates, the conference organizers will contact the candidate to give instructions about abstract submission, registration, travelling and lodging if the event takes place.

Not: TSD'ye üye olan kişi otomatik olarak ECerS üyesidir.
